17.1.5 The Vice-President Financial Affairs/Treasurer

17.1.6 The Vice-President Social Affairs

17.1.7 The Senator-2/Governor.

ARTICLE 18 - ELIGIBILITY

18.1 Members of the Board of Directors must be regular members of the Association at the time of their nomination and election.

18.1.1 For at least two semesters within the academic year, 1 September to 31 August subsequent, each member of the Board of Directors shall be an active student of the School of Continuing Studies and enrolled in credit courses offered by School of Continuing Studies.

18.1.2 If a Board Member is no longer enrolled as a student in the School of Continuing Studies, according to Article 18.1.1, they must resign effective immediately when they will cease to be an enrolled student in School of Continuing Studies. In this event, vacancy rules apply (Article 22)

18.2 Any employee of the Association shall be eligible to be a member of the Board of Directors, with conditions that follow in Article 18.3.1.

18.3 The following conditions apply to employees and sitting Board members:

18.3.1 An employee of the Association is eligible to be elected to a Director position provided the employee is a member of the Association at the time of their nomination and is eligible to be elected; however they must resign from their employee status by the date of their acceptance of an executive position.

18.3.2 To be eligible for nomination to run for election for an executive position, current elected members must:

- resign from their previously held executive position, should they choose to run for a different elected position;

The board must accept the resignations prior to the submission of the nomination papers for an executive position.

The exception to this article is an elected board member can continue until the completion of their term if they have chosen to run as incumbent.

- 18.4 Members of the Board of Directors cannot cumulate more than two (2) consecutive mandates if running for the same position.

ARTICLE 19 - TERM OF OFFICE

- 19.1 It is intended that the acceptance of a position to the Board of Directors of the MACES Association carry with it a duty spanning a period that is no less than 12 months and no more than 24 months.
- 19.2 In the event a person is unable to fulfill their duties, Article 22 applies.
- 19.3 Under no circumstances will the term in office extend beyond 24 months.

ARTICLE 20 - ELECTIONS

- 20.1 The Board positions shall be elected for the term as defined in Article 19.
- 20.2 Elections for positions on the Board of Directors shall be held between March 1st and April 15th of the same year.
- 20.3 Candidate platforms shall be published in a publication of the Association, a McGill newspaper, and / or by sending a written notice to the regular members by electronic mail at least ten (10) days in advance at their e-mail address as identified in the most recent Minerva report.
- 20.4 A candidate for a position of Director and Officer shall be nominated exclusively for that particular position and no other pursuant to a nomination form signed by at least five (5) members of the Association.
- 20.5 From the date of their election to the Board of Directors until the beginning of their term as Directors, newly elected Directors will have the following rights:
- 20.5.1 The right to receive notice(s) of Board of Directors' meetings, and to attend and enjoy speaking privileges at such meetings without, however, having any voting rights thereat;
 - 20.5.2 To obtain access to the Association's documents;
 - 20.5.3 To receive full cooperation from the Association's Board in response to every reasonable request.

ARTICLE 21 - REMUNERATION

- 21.1 The Board of Director members will be paid $5,500.00 each, per year, payable in three instalments on September 15, January 15 and May 15 of each year, under the following reservations and conditions:
- 21.1.1 Provided that they attend at least three fourth (3/4) of the Board meetings as well as achieving three fourth (3/4) of their duties as stated in chapter VI of the present by-laws;

- 21.1.2 In the case of the Senator-2/Governor position, they must also attend at least three fourth (3/4) of the Board and Senate or Governor meetings as well as achieving at least three fourth (3/4) of their duties
- 21.1.3 In case members of the Board of Directors do not respect the three fourth (3/4) quota, their honorarium will be decreased proportionally by the percentage of non-attendance and/or non-achievement of their duties.
- 21.3 The Board of Directors may, by resolution, vote a protocol in order to pay an advance on honorarium payment to a board member but that payment of an advance has to be done in accordance with the previous subsections.
- 21.4 This article can only be amended by the Annual General Assembly or Special General Assembly of the Association's members on a vote of ratification of a proposed amendment of the By-Laws adopted by the Board of Directors, in application and in concordance with subsections of 8 and 9.1.

ARTICLE 22 - VACANCY

- 22.1 The position of Director and Officer becomes vacant if the person occupying it:
- 22.1.1 Submits their written or verbal resignation;
- 22.1.2 Dies;
- 22.1.3 Loses their eligibility;
- 22.1.4 Is removed in accordance with the provisions of Article 23.
- 22.2 In the event of a vacancy, the remaining board members shall:
- 22.2.1 immediately inform the membership of the vacancy;
- 22.2.2 arrange a by-election at the earliest convenience, ideally within a time period of 30 days, but no more than 60 days, all the while respecting:
- The exam schedule;
 - the mandated time requirements of an appropriate campaigning period;
 - the mandated requirements of a similar periodic election, including the selection of an independent Chief Returning Officer.
- 22.3 In the event of a vacancy, the interim duties will be distributed amongst the remaining board members as decided by a board vote. These additional duties will carry with them no additional remuneration. At the successful conclusion of an election to fill the position, the duties will be assumed by the incoming newly elected member and the remainder of the board will revert to their mandated responsibilities.
- 22.4 In the event of a vacancy in the position of President, one of the remaining board members will assume the title of Acting President, and that title will be bestowed as a result of a vote of the board. This responsibility will be in addition to the board member's mandated responsibilities and will carry with it no additional remuneration. This title will be surrendered at the conclusion of an election of a new President, and the board member will revert to their former position.

- 22.5 The rules of Article 18.3 apply in the event that an existing board member chooses to submit their candidacy for any vacant position.

ARTICLE 23 - REMOVAL FROM OFFICE

- 23.1 Every person may be removed as a Director and Officer of the Association, for any reason, before the expiry of his term, at a Special General Assembly of Members called for such purpose, by the affirmative vote of the majority of the Regular members present.
- 23.2 If the convocation of the Special General Assembly is initiated by the Association's members, the following procedure shall be followed:
- 23.2.1 A petition to remove a person as a Director and Officer must be signed by at least five percent (5%) of the Association's members and it must be submitted to the President, or if the President is the subject of the Petition, to the Secretary who shall inscribe it on the Agenda and reviewed at the next Board of Directors' meeting.
- 23.2.2 There shall be a period of ten (10) days maximum between the submission of the Petition and the Board of Directors' meeting at which the Petition is reviewed.
- 23.2.3 Unless the members' Petition is invalid, the Board of Directors must call a Special General Assembly of the members which is to be held within the next thirty (30) days in order to consider the object of the petition.
- 23.3 Notwithstanding the previous subsection 23.1, every person may also be removed as a Director and Officer of the Association, by reason of three (3) unjustified absences at a meeting of the Board of Directors regularly held, before the expiry of this term, by an affirmative vote of the majority of the directors present. Convocation for the Board of Directors' meeting has to be sent to that person prior the submission of the resolution for that removal.

41.3 The purpose for the creation of the Publications Committee is to administer or supervise, or both, all periodic publications of MACES.

41.4 The Publications Committee shall submit to each regular meeting of the Board of Directors a report on all matters with which it has dealt since the previous regular Board meeting.

CHAPTER VIII- GENERAL ASSEMBLIES

ARTICLE 42 - ANNUAL GENERAL ASSEMBLY

42.1 The Annual General Assembly of the Association's members shall be held at least once during each fall and winter semester (between September 15 and November 30) or spring and summer semester of each year (between January 15 and March 30) on a date to be determined by resolution of the Board of Directors.

42.2 General Assembly shall be called by a notice sent by regular mail or electronic mail and published in MACES newspaper or a McGill newspaper. It also may be called by any other electronic means capable of being read and printed, to the last known address of the members.

42.3 For the most parts, the legislative power of a General Assembly is equal to that of the Board of Directors.

ARTICLE 43 - SPECIAL GENERAL ASSEMBLY

43.1 The Board of Directors may convene a Special General Assembly of the Association's members whenever it deems it to be appropriate.

43.2 Unless otherwise provided in the by-laws, upon the receipt by the Secretary or the Board of Directors of a requisition in writing signed by at least five percent (5%) of the Association's members setting out the objects of the proposed Assembly, the Board of Directors shall immediately convene a Special General Assembly for the transaction of the business mentioned in the requisition.

ARTICLE 44 - DATE, LOCATION AND AGENDA

44.1 The notice of the meeting shall specify the date, time, location and the agenda of such meeting.

ARTICLE 45 – NOTICE AND PROCEDURE

45.1 Notice: Every Annual General Assembly or Special General Assembly shall be properly called by electronic and/or regular mail, and/or published in MACES newspaper or a McGill newspaper within no less than fourteen (14) clear days prior to the date set for the meeting by the Board of Directors

45.2 Procedure: An Annual General Assembly or Special General Assembly shall be conducted according to Robert's Rules of Order, subject to any special rules of procedure adopted by at least 2/3 of the Board of Directors.

ARTICLE 46 - REPRESENTATION

46.1 A proxy does not represent a member at a General Assembly and/or a Special General Assembly.

46.2 All members in satisfactory standing, as determined by McGill University, shall be eligible to vote at any General Assembly or Special General Assembly.

ARTICLE 47 - QUORUM

47.1 The quorum for a regular General Assembly shall be 80 (eighty) members of the Association. The Board of Directors or MACES employees shall not be counted towards the quorum at the General Assembly.

47.2 If a quorum is not reached at any given General Assembly or Special General Assembly, those members present shall have the power to adjourn the assembly until the quorum is reached.

ARTICLE 48 - PRESIDENT AND SECRETARY

48.1 The President and the VP Internal Affairs/Secretary of the Association automatically act as the chairman and the secretary, as the case may be, of every Assembly. In the case of the absence of one or the other, or if he/she does not desire to fulfill the function, another member of the Association is elected to hold such a position for the purpose of a particular Assembly.

- 48.2 For greater certainty, it is declared that no participation of a Chief Returning Officer shall be required to elect a chairman or secretary of any Assembly.

ARTICLE 49 - REFERENDUM

49.1 MACES members participate in direct democracy by voting online in a referendum, held once per semester (early November and early March). Referendums can be either student-initiated or Board of Directors-initiated.

49.1.1 The President and/or Vice-President Internal Affairs/Secretary shall appoint a member of the MACES Board of Directors to formulate the referendum question.

49.2 The question must get the approval of at least fifty percent (50%) of MACES Board of Directors before it can be put on the ballot.

49.2.1 It is the responsibility of the MACES Board of Directors to get the necessary approval on the format of any referendum question from the respective departments at McGill University.

49.2.2 The formulation of referendum questions requires a single choice between “YES”, “NO” or “ABSTAIN” to a question; or allows the ranking of a multiplicity of options determined.

49.3 The voting for any referendum question shall take place by electronic balloting, using a third-party managed system as approved by the Board of Directors.

49.3.1 It is the responsibility of the MACES COO to appoint a Chief Returning Officer (CRO) who will communicate the question to the membership. The CRO can be a member of the MACES, however in that case shall have no voting rights.

49.3.2 When electronic balloting is used, the CRO must send an email to the MACES membership containing instructions on how to vote with a link to the online voting system. The CRO must do this within 24 hours of the opening of the polls. The CRO must also send at least two emails to eligible members who have not yet voted during the voting period. These emails must be sent between 5:00am and 10:00am.

49.3.3 For any given referendum, the CRO shall communicate the question to the membership by electronic mail at least 30 clear days prior to the referendum date and to ensure publishing the question in MACES newsletter and/or McGill newsletter and on the MACES website.

49.4 Exceptionally, a referendum may take place by paper ballot, occurring at staffed polling stations. Such an election may only take place following a request by at least 2/3 of the Board of Directors and/or at least 2/3 of MACES Council.

49.5 The voting period for a referendum must be at least fourteen (14) consecutive days, which may not include a statutory holiday.

49.5.1 Proxy voting shall not be permitted.

49.5.2 Votes must be voluntarily cast; it shall not be permitted to intimidate, coerce, or otherwise force a regular member to cast a vote.

49.5.3 Mail-in paper balloting shall not be permitted.

49.6 In the case of either electronic or paper balloting, ballots must be secret, and protected by security measures adequate to ensure the privacy and fidelity of the voting system.

49.7 Any MACES member may collect at least 100 signatures in order to have a referendum question placed on the ballot. Should the question get the approval of at least one MACES Board of Directors member, the question will be placed on the ballot at the next referendum period.

49.8 The quorum for a referendum shall be five (5) percent of the membership.

49.8.1 Should a referendum not meet quorum, then the result shall be nullified, and results shall not be made public.

49.8.2 Referendum questions may be consultative or binding. A consultative referendum questions shall not bind MACES, but may be used to aid MACES in acting in a manner consistent with the will of its members. Binding referendum questions may only modify or levy fees.

49.8.3 Referendum questions that violate governing documents, or the law, are deemed out of order, and invalidated according to procedures set out in governing documents.

49.9 A defeated referendum question shall not be reintroduced for a period of at least three (3) months, provided that the referendum was valid pursuant to the MACES by-law or any other governing documents.

ARTICLE 50 - FUNCTIONS OF THE ANNUAL GENERAL ASSEMBLY

50.1 The functions of the Annual General Assembly are:

50.1.1 To receive copies of the financial statements and the auditors' report;

50.1.2 To determine the different orientations and priorities of the Association; and

50.1.3 To deal with such other matters as are lawfully presented to the Assembly

54.2 Such quorum must exist throughout the meeting.

ARTICLE 55 - PRESIDENT AND VICE-PRESIDENT INTERNAL AFFAIRS/SECRETARY

55.1 The President and the Vice-President Internal Affairs/Secretary of the Association automatically act as the chairman and the secretary of the meeting. In the case of the absence of one or the other, or if he does not desire to fulfill this function, the Vice-President Internal Affairs/Secretary shall hold the position of the chairperson and another Director shall be elected to hold the position of the secretary of the meeting.

ARTICLE 56 - PROCEDURE

56.1 The Board of Directors' meetings shall be conducted according to Robert's Rules of Order.

ARTICLE 57 - VOTE

57.1 The vote is taken by a show of hands unless a Director passes a motion requiring a secret ballot or a roll call.

57.2 The Chairman of the Meeting may not vote unless there is a tie and then he is given the deciding vote.

ARTICLE 58 - BOARD OF DIRECTOR FUNCTIONS

58.1 The Board of Directors administers the affairs of the Association.

58.2 Without derogating from the generality of sub-section 58.1, the Board of Directors may:

58.2.1 Hire, discipline, supervise and fire any employee;

58.2.2 Supervise all representatives of the Association appointed by the Board of Directors to a university committee or any other organization with which the Association is affiliated;

58.2.3 Decide to affiliate or disaffiliate the Association from any organization;

58.2.4 Effect all appointments, renewals of appointment, nominations and removals of the Association's representatives on McGill committees and/or external committees.

58.3 The Board of Directors is obliged to see to the good administration of the Association in all possible respects;

58.4 The Board of Directors is obliged to see to the fulfillment of all mandates given by the General Assembly.

58.5 The Board of Directors shall not affiliate the Association with any organization whose primary objectives are political or religious.

CHAPTER X - FINAL PROVISIONS

ARTICLE 59 - LANGUAGES

59.1 All members of the Association may conduct their business with the Association in either of the official languages of Canada.

ARTICLE 60 - HEADINGS

60.1 The headings of the chapters, articles, or subsections of these or any other by-laws of the Association are for reference purposes only and do not bear on the interpretation of the provisions to which they relate.

ARTICLE 61 - GENDER AND NUMBER

61.1 Without discrimination and for the sole purpose of simplifying the text of these by-laws, the masculine includes the feminine, and vice versa.

61.2 In these by-laws, whenever appropriate, words importing the singular include the plural, and vice versa.

ARTICLE 62 - LANGUAGE OF BY-LAWS

62.1 Upon a resolution of a General Assembly of members, the Board of Directors shall make all its by-laws available in both official languages of Canada.

62.2 If the meaning of the English and French text of these or any other by-laws conflict, the English text shall prevail.

ARTICLE 63 - SUPERSEDING CLAUSE

63.1 The present by-laws repeal and replace the previous Constitution and the "MACES' By-laws" as well as all other by-laws which are incompatible with the present by-laws.

ARTICLE 64 - PER DIEM FOR ATTENDANCE
